

Chelsea Dantonio

Buffalo, New York native, Chelsea Dantonio has been playing the game of golf since she was just thirteen years old. Most of her competitive play as a junior golfer consisted of playing in IJGT and FCWT events. She also had the honor of playing in the junior optimist tournament.

After a successful junior career, Chelsea took her golf game to Winthrop University in South Carolina. During her time as an Eagle, Chelsea was named Big South Women's All Conference Team, All Academic Team, All Freshman Team, and was named Player of the Week twice. Additionally, she was the Women's 2021 Porter Cup Runner Up.

Shortly after graduation, Chelsea started her professional career. Since, she has continued to compete competitively in professional tournaments all over the country continuing to master the game. She joined Backswing Golf Events because of the flexibility that it gives her to continue to pursue her professional career. Chelsea loves that Backswing is a part of supporting local businesses and charities. She is excited to have the chance to travel the country and meet new people who love the game of golf as much as she does!

